4.7.3. Castano et al's (2005) study on boards of directors of ESEs.....	92
4.8. Concluding remarks.....	93
5. RESEARCH QUESTIONS AND METHODS.....	94
5.1. Research question.....	94
5.2. Aim.....	94
5.3. Objectives.....	94
5.4. Methods.....	95
5.4.1. Location of study.....	95
5.4.2. Research design.....	95
5.4.3. Objective # 1.....	98
5.4.4. Objective # 2.....	99
5.4.5. Objective # 3.....	102
5.4.6. Objective # 4.....	103
5.4.7. Data collection tools.....	104
5.4.8. Data analysis.....	104
Data collection, coding and categorising	104
Pattern matching: confirming and refuting evidence	105
Researcher's potential biases	105
Validity and reliability	106
5.5. Ethical issues.....	107
5.6. Limitations of the methods.....	107
6. TYPES OF RELATIONSHIPS BETWEEN ESEs AND PURCHASERS.....	109
Methods	110
Findings	113
6.1. Relationships with SOH.....	113
6.1.1. Contracts for services to the uninsured.....	113
a. The degree of monopoly power enjoyed by the ESE.....	119
b. Level of total revenues	121
c. Level of inefficiency.....	122
d. Level of dependence on revenues from the SOH.....	123
e. Manager's career concerns.....	124
6.1.2. Contracts for public health services (PAB)	125
6.1.3. Contracts for ambulance services.....	126
6.1.4. Classifying the relationships between ESEs and the SOH.....	127
6.2. Relationships with subsidised insurance plans.....	131
6.3. Summary of findings on relationships between ESEs and purchasers.....	143
Discussion	145

Conclusions	149
7. ROLE OF CONTRACT INCOMPLETENESS AND RELATIONSHIP SPECIFIC INVESTMENTS (RSI)	151
7.1. Objective functions of the actors.....	152
7.2. RSI regarding relationships with the SOH.....	153
7.2.1. Contracts for services to the uninsured.....	153
7.2.2. Contracts for PAB services.....	155
7.2.3. Contracts for ambulances.....	156
7.3. RSI regarding relationships with ARS.....	156
7.4. Contract incompleteness regarding relationships with the SOH.....	160
7.4.1. Contracts for services to the uninsured.....	161
Uncertainty	161
Complexity of contracted products	165
7.4.2. PAB contracts.....	167
7.4.3. Contracts for ambulances.....	168
7.5. Contract incompleteness regarding ARSs.....	168
Uncertainty	168
Complexity of contracted products	172
7.6. Transaction costs regarding SOH contracts.....	176
7.7. Transaction costs regarding ARS contracts.....	179
7.8. Summary of findings.....	186
Discussion	189
7.9. Expected versus observed types of relationships.....	190
7.10. Explanations for the effects of RSI and contract incompleteness or its lack thereof.....	192
Conclusions	197
8. COEXISTENCE OF HIERARCHICAL RELATIONSHIPS	198
8.1. ESEs responses to autonomy.....	199
8.1.1. Desired responses to autonomy.....	200
8.1.2. Undesired responses to autonomy.....	203
Abuse of autonomy	203
No response to autonomy	208
Responsiveness to other principals	209
8.2. SOH mechanisms to deal with undesirable ESE responses.....	215
8.2.1. Incomplete transfer of decision rights.....	216
8.2.2. Accountability devices.....	220
8.3. Summary of findings.....	230
Discussion	232
Conclusions	238
9. USEFULNESS OF TCE FRAMEWORK AND OTHER NIE THEORIES	240
9.1. Agency theory.....	241
9.2. Property rights theory.....	245
9.3. Public choice theory.....	247
9.4. Summary of findings.....	253
Discussion	254

Conclusions	264
10. DISCUSSION AND POLICY IMPLICATIONS	266
10.1. Overview of the findings.....	266
10.2. Further general reflections.....	273
10.3. Methodological issues and limitations.....	276
10.4. Implications for policy.....	279
10.4.1. Implications for policy at the local level.....	280
10.4.2. Implications for policy at the national level.....	282
10.4.3. Implications for policy at the international level.....	282
10.5. Further research questions.....	285
